9. The leaseholder shall also forfeit the amount of the deposit referred to in condition 7 to the Government if after adjudication the respective contract is not signed by him.

10. The earnest money shall be refunded to the unsuccessful bidders.

Conditions for grant of lease

The following are the conditions for the grant of lease of the Distillery installations at Daman and Diu for the purpose of manufacture of country liquor.

1. The lease for distillation of country liquor in the districts of Daman and Diu respectively using the respective distillery installations and other material which the Government possesses at Banselur in Daman and at Diu shall be for a period of 1 year beginning from the date of the execution of the contract referred to in the above condition 8 of the notice.

2. The Government reserves the right to cancel the lease at any time with one month's prior notice to the leaseholder if prohibition is enforced in Daman and/or Diu in which case the leaseholder shall have no right to claim any compensation from the Government.

3. The leaseholder shall have to pay the amount of the rent of Rs. ... in relation to district or districts of ... in 12 monthly instalments, into the State Bank of India, Bank of Saurashtra/Sub-Treasury of the respective district on the first day of every month. Such payment of instalments shall be made by challan under the Government Budget Head ... The leaseholder shall be permitted to pay the monthly instalment till the end of the next following month provided he pays the interest at the rate of 2% per month for late payment of instalment from the first day of the month in which it is due till the date of the late payment.

4. The Distillery installations with its enclosures, employee's houses, warehouses, sheds, water supply system and also equipment, casks, vessels, instruments, and other items for distillation belonging to the Government and existing in the districts of Daman and Diu shall be at the disposal of leaseholder and he will be responsible for any misuse, breakage or loss of the articles. The decision of the Commissioner of Excise, Panaji in this behalf shall be final.

5. The leaseholder is bound to:

i) take necessary care to keep the buildings, warehouses, outbuildings of the installations clean and in good condition and at his own expenses shall carry out the repairs and tinning of the copper casks and shall keep the stills clean, and
ii) hand over the charge of the Distillery installations in the same condition and order at which they were at the commencement of lease, immediately after the expiration of the period of this lease or its rescission under the condition 2.

6. The water supply system, equipment, casks, vessels, instruments and other items referred to in condition 4 and also the parts of the same material which by repeated use became unserviceable and cannot be repaired, shall be replaced at the expenses of the leaseholder. The decision of Commissioner of Excise, Panaji regarding unserviceableness and being not fit for repair of all or any of the above articles shall be final.

7. The leaseholder can mount at his expenses, in the installations any equipment of distillation and use the casks or vessels belonging to him but the resulting cost shall not be borne by the Government. The Government reserves the right to buy at the end of the contract or its rescission, the said equipment and casks for the price fixed by the Commissioner of Excise, Panaji as an arbitrator.

8. The security deposit of Rs. ... made in the Treasury/State Bank of India under condition 7 represents the guarantee of the contract and the same shall be refunded to the leaseholder if it is not forfeited to the Government for breach of any of the conditions of the contract.

9. The leaseholder shall not sublet or transfer the installations or any part of the enclosures and items belonging to the Government or his right to manufacture country liquor without previous authorisation in writing from the Government.

10. The leaseholder shall be subject to the payment of the liquidated damages to the Government at the following rates, in the event of any breach of the conditions of the contract:

(i) 2% of the rent of the lease shall be paid in the event of the rescission of the contract, except when the contract is rescinded under condition 2 above, and

(ii) Rs. 30/- at each time in the event of contravention of condition 5.

11. (i) Any of the following facts are sufficient causes for the rescission of the contract of the leaseholder without formalities other than a mere notice to him and without any right to claim for compensation from the Government:

- Failure to pay any instalment within the fixed time-limit, or
- Repetition of the breach of the conditions of the contract, or
- Refusal to comply with any of the obligations imposed under the contract.

(ii) In the event of the rescission of the contract for any of the abovementioned causes, the leaseholder besides forfeiting to the Government the security deposit referred to in condition 7 shall also forfeit all his property that exists in the Distillery installations or any place belonging to the leaseholder or his agents without prejudice to any civil or criminal proceedings which may result from the rescission.

12. The leaseholder without prejudice to the provisions of the Gur (Regulation of Use) Amendment Order 1968 and of the Gur (Regulation of Use) Second Amendment Order 1968 shall not make use of Gur for the purpose of manufacturing country liquor till the Gur (Regulation of Use) Order dated 3-4-1968 of Government of India, Ministry of Food and Agriculture, remains in force or any other material use of which may be prohibited by Government.

13. The leaseholder shall observe the provisions of the Excise Duty Act, 1964 and the Rules made thereunder.

14. The leaseholder shall not manufacture country liquor other than that of the strength of 60 U.P. and 27 U.P.

15. The wholesale prices of country liquor to be manufactured by the leaseholder exclusive of excise duty shall not exceed the following:
